The graduating students comprised 127 who did their A-Levels, 111 from the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, and 142 who completed the Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM) and Associate Business Executives (ABE) programmes.

They received their scrolls from college founder and chairman Tan

Sunway College principal Elizabeth Lee said the college had conducted more than 50 graduations since its founding.

"However, to mark the college's 15th anniversary, we decided to have students from four different courses come together for the graduation."

Guest-of-honour at the joint graduation was British High Commissioner Bruce Cleghorn.
