

■ AN INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL NIGHT at Sunway College saw the participation of 800 students, staff and parents.

The event showcased cultural performances and a plethora of international cuisine from countries such as Indonesia, Myanmar, Japan and Italy.

The highlight of the evening was a beauty pageant comprising Sunway College's international students from the Maldives, Russia, Kenya and Sri Lanka, among others. The crown went to Miss China.

Other activities were a Mini Book Fair organised by the college's Tun Hussein Onn Library and a Computer Pioneers Programme (CPP) launched in collaboration with UK-based NCC Education Ltd.

The CPP comprises a series of programmes to help schoolchildren develop computing skills.

Another campus event was a three-day camping adventure for nine students at the Endau Rompin National Park in Johor. The trip was organised by the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management.
