

Sudesh and Shireen with Prof Richard Phippen, Resident Director of Sunway College-WMU

Award for US-bound siblings

FOR siblings Sudesh Abhimanyu Woodiga, 18, and Shireen Alka Woodiga, 21, the recent Sunway College – Western Michigan University ( WMU ) Honours Convocation was the highlight of their college experience.

The Woodigas, who hail from Labuan, were two of four lucky Sunway College-WMU Twinning Programme students who received the WMU Scholarship Award worth US$750 (RM2,850) each at the ceremony.

The other recipients were Chow Woan Tian and Loh Hui Ling.

Biomedical Science student Shireen said: "I'm grateful for the scholarship. My interest lies in genetics and I hope to make my contribution through research and development."

Her younger brother Sudesh, who majors in Aeronautical Engineering, dreams of a career in aerodynamic design for motor sports.

The siblings, and 30 other students, will soon leave for WMU's Kalamazoo campus and other American universities to resume the second half of their degree programme.

Sunway currently offers twinning programmes leading to five Bachelor degrees, namely: Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.), Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Computer Science, Bachelor of Engineering (B. Eng.), Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Natural Science, and Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Mass Communications.

The intakes are in January, May and September. The next intake is on May 7.

Sunway College is located at No 5, Jalan Kolej, Bandar Sunway, 46150 Petaling Jaya, Selangor Darul Ehsan.
