The recent Sunway College A-Level July 2001 graduation ceremony saw the attendance of 160 graduands and over 100 parents and Sunway College staff.

Sunway College students have managed to secure places in world-renowned universities such as Oxford, Cambridge, Stanford, Duke and Harvard.

"Behind every success story, there is a well-oiled and seasoned support team. Hence, we cannot underestimate the role played by our very own A-Team who are even known to run up to the hostels to wake the odd student up to come for tests, examinations and classes," said Elizabeth Lee, principal of Sunway College at the ceremony.

Among the top students who were presented awards at the ceremony were David Chiang Chun Fai and Vincent Nga Diong Weng.

In his valedictorian speech, Chiang expressed his gratitude to Sunway’s A-Level lecturers, head of programme and members of the faculty.

The A-Level qualification is a favourite amongst students as it is internationally recognised and accepted for entry into universities and professional courses in the United Kingdom, the United States of America, Australia, New Zealand, India and Singapore.

Sunway College will be opening its doors to the public, conducting educational and career talks and tests from 10 till 6 pm on Aug 25.
