

ROUND THE BLOCK

WELL-DONE: Cheah (second from left) and Koh from SMK Katholik sharing their joy with schoolmates Tan Cheng Leong (extreme left) and Yeo Suan Aik (extreme right) who also participated as a team

■ STUDENTS from Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Katholik, Petaling Jaya, and Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah, Shah Alam emerged winners at the recent Logo Design and Open Design competitions for secondary school students organised by Sunway College's School of Information Technology, Telecommunications and Multimedia (SITM).

Koh Chau Sean and Jermaine Cheah from SMK Katholik were champions of the Logo Design category. Each received E-Suara Technologies Sdn Bhd software worth RM2,850, a jacket worth RM200, a certificate and a trophy.

Meanwhile, Mohamad Amin Zakri Azman and Noor Zamilah Mohamad Zain from SMK Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah won the Open Design category.

The contest was aimed at motivating students to formulate and develop outstanding ideas and designs using information and communication technology tools, says SITM director Kanendran T Arulrajah.

This material may be protected by the Malaysia Copyright Act. It may only be used for private study or research. Downloading or reproduction in excess of “fair dealing” may constitute copyright infringement.