Canadian school diplomas from Sunway College

Sunway College recently hosted the 17th graduation ceremony for the Canadian International Matriculation Programme (CIMP), where 171 students received their Ontario Secondary School diplomas.

During the graduation, those who excelled academically were given recognition for their results.

Ayesha Mohd Salleh was the Valedictorian of the graduation ceremony. She received the Tan Sri Dato' Seri Dr Jeffrey's scholastic award.

She was also presented with subject awards for English and Families in Society. Kelvin Loh Weng Fai received The Programme Director's award and also a subject award in Chemistry.

Fourteen other students also received subject awards presented by their individual teachers.

Also present were Puan Sri Datin Seri Susan Cheah, Lee Weng Keng and Dr Tan Toh Wah, who presented the graduands their diplomas.
