Pathways to Excellence

Sunway visiting schools to brief students

SUNWAY College will go places throughout this month and September, visiting schools in various parts of the country to enlighten students and their parents on educational opportunities available at the college.

Four schools have been identified in which the team would set up booths and conduct counselling sessions on the academic programmes offered at Sunway.

The school exhibition has been held at Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Taman Yarl in Kuala Lumpur (Aug 1), the Chong Hwa Independent High School, KL on (Aug 12 and 13) and Shen Jai High School in Ipoh (Aug 18).

The response was very impressive as parents and students made full use of the opportunity to seek information pertaining to various courses offered at Sunway College and its twinning partners.

Its next stop will be Sekolah Menengah Jenis Kebangsaan Tsung Wah in Kuala Kangsar, Perak, on Aug 26 with the final destination on Aug 30 at Sekolah Menengah Jenis Kebangsaan Phor Tay in Penang.

In addition to holding exhibitions in schools, Sunway college will also be visiting Ipoh and Johor Baru to conduct SPM Workshops and Career seminars. These will at the Syuen Hotel in Ipoh on Aug 20, and the Puteri Pan Pacific Hotel in Johor Baru on Aug 27. Both sessions will be from 1pm to 6pm.

In September, the roadshow will be in East Malaysia where the first stop will be the Holiday Inn, Kuching, on Sept 2. On Sept 3, it will be at the Hyatt Kinabalu Hotel in Kota Kinabalu.

For those living in the Klang Valley or its vicinity, Sunway’s Open Day on Aug 26 will showcase the college’s courses at its campus in Bandar Sunway.

Students and their parents can see for themselves the multi-million ringgit facility at the college.
