

State-of-the-art training facilities

SUNWAY College's School of Hospitality and Tourism Management (SHTM) is set to play a pivotal role in meeting the demands of the Hospitality and Tourism industry.

The school, which has an enrolment of 500, was officially opened by Deputy Minister of Education Datuk Hon Choon Kim.

Designed to offer students the best, SHTM is an affiliate member of the Malaysian Hotel Association and a member of the Council on Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Education (CHRIE).

The school is equipped with the best facilities possible including a purpose-built fine-dining restaurant which provides the perfect environment for students to be taught the techniques of food and beverage service, as well as supervision and management of an F&B outlet.

The school also offers culinary practice kitchens equipped with state-of-the-art training facilities for hands-on experience.

There is also a full-sized training bar equipped with the

WANT A BITE?: Hon (third from left) looks on as a student prepares food. Also present is Sunway Group chairman Tan Sri Jeffrey Cheah latest bar equipment and a fully-computerised mock front office complete with the Fidelio system, similar to those used in leading hotels around the world.

A mock-up hotel bedroom with an attached bathroom is also available for students to practise housekeeping procedures and cleaning techniques.

SHTM currently offers the Certificate in Hotel and Restaurant Operations and Diploma in Hospitality and Tourism Management with majors in either Hospitality or Tourism.

This material may be protected by the Malaysia Copyright Act. It may only be used for private study or research. Downloading or reproduction in excess of “fair dealing” may constitute copyright infringement.