Puspanita members feted at Sunway College

SUNWAY COLLEGE recently played host to 40 Puspanita (association of female public service officers and wives of civil servants) members from the Ministry of Education.

Led by Puspanita president Puan Sri Zarina Fazole Hussain, wife of the Ministry's chief secretary, the members visited the college's School of Hospitality and Tourism Management to widen their knowledge on culinary and service skills.

They were treated to demonstrations by chefs and lecturers and given sessions on the preparation of mayonnaise, cake decoration and napkin folding.

They also toured the college's other facilities including the library, lecture theatres and training kitchen.

The visitors were accompanied by Puan Sri Datin Seri Susan Cheah, wife of Sunway College founder Tan Sri Datuk Seri Dr Jeffrey Cheah, and Sunway College principal Elizabeth Lee.
