

Canadian awards for outstanding students

Petaling Jaya, Sun: Sunway College student Amy Goh Hui Ling 19, from Miri, Sarawak, made the college proud by winning Canada's Governor General Academic Award under the Canadian Matriculation Programme (CMP) here today.

She also received three other awards and the Individual Presenters Award (IPA) which is the Tan Sri Dr Jeffrey Cheah Award and RM 2,000 in cash for being the overall best student in the college.

Another student, Mohanraj Patchappan, 18, from Raub, Pahang, also received three different awards and the IPA Principal's Award.

About 85 students of the college graduated under the CMP 97/98 today.

Amy Goh told reporters that she plans to continue her law studies in Canada.
