

Awards for Sunway students

SUNWAY College recently presented scholarships worth RM386,749 to 125 students.

Of the total, RM380,740 were awarded to 121 students to study various twinning/pre-university courses at the college.

The students received their awards from Deputy Director-General of Education Sri Nusa Ahmad Taharuddin.

Four outstanding students also received cash under the Tan Sri Datuk Seri Dr Jeffrey Cheah Scholastic Award.

They are Clarence Tangga Peragasam from the college's Greenwich University twinning programme, Lai Nai One from the Sunway-Leicester University twinning programme, and Yee Kok Wei and Lee Hwa Seng from the A-Level programme.

In his speech, Sri Nusa said: "Learning is a life-time assignment to which we are all committed. Keep an open, attentive mind and always look at problems as opportunities to learn from and experience something new."
