GET A QUALITY BRITISH EDUCATION

From Long Established British Universities

For top quality engineering degrees from the United Kingdom look no further than Sunway College. With twinning programmes in engineering through a consortium of long established British universities, you can rest assured our facilities are among the best and our academic standards are fully endorsed to earn you an internationally recognised degree.

★ Choice of two programmes

3 year programme for Bachelor in Engineering (Hons); 4 year programme for Master in Engineering.

★ Common UK curriculum

followed in the first year, with a specialised discipline in subsequent years.

★ Wide choice of UK consortium universities

After completion of first year studies at Sunway College, students complete their final studies at one of the consortium universities.

★ Full-time Resident Director,

Mr. Anthony Corbett, seconded from Leicester University, oversees the academic programme to ensure UK university standards are maintained.
