

Zaleha (right) and Navaratnam having a look at a student's booth.

Campaign to instil social awareness

SUNWAY College has launched a month-long Caring for Creation Campaign to instil social awareness among its students.

The campaign was launched by National Unity and Social Development Minister Datin Paduka Zaleha Ismail on Tuesday at the college auditorium.

Sunway College executive director Tan Sri Ramon Navaratnam said besides academic excellence, it was important to teach youngsters the need to be caring. He said the campaign encouraged students and staff to:

- Adopt a caring attitude towards the underprivileged
 - Be aware of social problems and needs, and
 - Appreciate all creation; mankind, animals, nature and also the environment.
- The college is organising

Navaratnam . . . 'Important to teach youngsters the need to be caring.'

Zaleha . . . launched the campaign.

talks to educate and raise student awareness on various social issues like domestic violence, child abuse, environmental preservation and on AIDS.

Several booths have been taken up by various NGOs which include the Malaysian Nature Society, WWF Malaysia and Womens Aid Organisation.

A blood donation drive will also be held on May 9.

The month-long campaign will culminate in a charity concert on May 17 at the college's amphitheatre where students will display their talents for a charitable cause.

This material may be protected by the Malaysia Copyright Act. It may only be used for private study or research. Downloading or reproduction in excess of “fair dealing” may constitute copyright infringement.