

Sunway College hosts seminar for principals

SUNWAY College recently hosted a seminar for 300 invited principals and administrators from Selangor.

The seminar was conducted by Dr David Thomas, senior lecturer in education at the Flinders University of South Australia who spoke on School Effectiveness –

What research has to say.

The talk provided additional insights into the new trends and developments in education.

Dr Thomas also conducted revision classes for Sunway College-Flinders University twinning programme students.

The Sunway-Flinders twinning programme allows students the option of pursuing business specialisations ranging from the traditional areas such as accounting, finance, economics and management to development areas of international business, marketing, business languages, banking and international finance.
