

SUNNY SMILES ... Sunway College graduands at their grand convocation.

Sunway is 15 and going on strong

A TOTAL of 380 students from Sunway College received their certificates and awards in a special joint graduation ceremony recently.

The ceremony saw students from Sunway's A-Levels, Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM), Association of Business Executives (ABE), and the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management graduating.

Said Sunway College principal Elizabeth Lee: "Over the years, the college has conducted more than 50 graduation ceremonies but this year, to mark our 15th anniversary, we decided on something grander by having students from four different courses come together."

The guest of honour for the occasion was the British High Commissioner to Malaysia, Bruce Cleghorn.

One hundred and twenty-seven students received their A-level certificates, another 111 certificates from the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, and 142 from CIM and ABE.

Chairman and founder of the Sunway Group and Sunway College, Tan Sri Dr Jeffrey Cheah was happy with the event, which was attended by more than 700 guests, saying that it reflected the effort the college had taken to support local tertiary education.

This material may be protected by the Malaysia Copyright Act. It may only be used for private study or research. Downloading or reproduction in excess of “fair dealing” may constitute copyright infringement.