

Top student wins varsity award

SUNWAY College student Khaw Thean San was the proud recipient of the Leicester University Engineers Association Prize recently.

This award is given for the best performance in the first year of the Leicester University B.Eng Honours degree to students of Leicester University as well as Sunway College.

Khaw who scored a 98 per cent in Mathematics with an overall average of 89.1 per cent said, "I am pleased and honoured to be awarded such a prestigious prize."

This top student is also one of the selected few in Malaysia to have received the British High Commissioner's Award which covers tuition fees for the second and third years at Leicester University in the United Kingdom.

Equally active in co-curricular activities, Khaw was the organising chairman for the Leicester Ball and a committee member of the Sunway College Country Run.

Sunway College- Leicester University twinning programmes resident director Les Booth said, "The Leicester Engineering honours degree programme is a comprehensive start to an engineering career."

This material may be protected by the Malaysia Copyright Act. It may only be used for private study or research. Downloading or reproduction in excess of “fair dealing” may constitute copyright infringement.