

ALL SMILES: The graduates with the university and college representatives

Seventeen from Sunway get degrees

SEVENTEEN former Sunway College students were among 45 graduands conferred degrees by the University of Western Australia at the Australian High Commission recently.

The graduates received their degrees from its Chancellor, Justice Geoffrey Kennedy.

It was the second time that UWA held a graduation ceremony in Malaysia.

Also present were Australian High Commissioner to Malaysia, John Dauth, and Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Suleiman Mohamad.

To date, 715 Malaysians have graduated from UWA which offers twinning degree programmes like the Bachelors of Commerce, Economics, Science, Commerce/Laws as well as Computer and Mathematical Sciences.
