

Flexible finance and accounting programme

WE each have our own approach to studying and we all juggle different work and personal commitments on a daily basis, which is why it is reassuring to know there is a programme out there that provides different study options to suit your lifestyle.

CPA Australia has identified an individual's need to choose the way they study.

Available in two delivery methods, the CPA Programme works with your own timeline and provides the level of support you need to succeed.

Be it distance learning at your own pace or full-time study to complete the programme in a shorter period, the CPA Programme offers flexible study options to suit you.

Partnering with registered tuition provider Sunway TES, CPA Australia offers a full-time study option to candidates in Kuala Lumpur, designed for those who are available to study multiple subjects at once.

Students of the full-time CPA Programme will complete their studies in a structured classroom environment with tuition support from Sunway TES.

Helping you apply your learning through exercises, discussions and feedback, each subject is taught by an expert in the field who will provide guidance and support throughout the semester.

For those who prefer to set your own study plan according to your own schedule, the distance learning option is the choice for you.

subjects you study each semester to the level of support you require, this delivery method is truly customisable.

While you still need to complete your CPA Programme subjects within the advised time frame, how you choose to do so is up to you.

CPA Australia's flexible programme sets it apart in the world of accounting and finance.

If you are looking to build an exciting career based on professional accounting skills and get there by studying the way you want, then the CPA Programme is for you.
