Sunway-Oxbridge essay competition

Submission deadline: April 25 (1pm)

- > Organised by Sunway Group, the Oxford and Cambridge Society Malaysia, the Jeffrey Cheah Foundation and Sunway University, with support from Sunway Pals and endorsed by the Education Ministry, the competition aims to equip secondary-level students with skills such as English proficiency, critical reasoning, creativity, as well as emotional intelligence that will prepare them for their future.
- > The competition is open to all Malaysian secondary school students studying the local syllabus.
- > The essays will revolve around the theme of “humility”. Participating students will be divided into Category A (Forms 1 to 3 students) and Category B (Forms 4 and 5 students).
- > Students can submit their entries through www.sunway.com.my/essay.
- > Students under Category A (Forms 1 to 3) will need to write a 200- to 350-word essay. The essay prompt is: “Malaysia is a country with religious diversity. Discuss how mutual respect can help people from different religious beliefs coexist harmoniously.”
