

Bright moment for Sunway

PETALING JAYA: It was a day that Sunway University College emerged top of the class.

It won three titles at the Malaysia Canada Business Council awards.

The university college took home the gold award in the industry excellence in the education category, with Taylor's University taking silver and HELP University College the bronze.

The second gold came in the Good Corporate Citizen category, an award given to a corporation or individual who has made a significant contribution in community involvement — environmental awareness, programmes that assist underprivileged groups or programmes that have impacted individuals and the community in a positive way.

The third gold, received by Elizabeth Lee, executive director of Sunway University College and Sunway Group of Colleges, was the high commissioner's award for contributions to Malaysian-Canadian bilateral relations.

The awards were presented by Deputy Minister of International Trade and Industry Datuk Liew Vui Keong. The High Commissioner of Canada David B. Collins was also present at the ceremony.

Presenting the awards to Ms Elizabeth Lee (Executive Director, Sunway University College and Sunway Education Group) was Y.B. Datuk Liew Vui Keong, Deputy Minister of International Trade and Industry (Trade) witnessed by H.E. David B Collins, High Commissioner of Canada.
